

Invitation

Come Walk with Us Cultural Awareness Training 2019

Activity No. 89363

This training session will meet the requirements of the Practice Incentive Program Indigenous Health Incentive (PIP IHI). At least two representatives from registered practices are required to attend Cultural Awareness training; one of these representatives must be a GP.

Learning outcomes:

- Participants will be able to determine barriers affecting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander identification rates within their own workplace.
- Participants will be able to identify common barriers to cultural safety in the general practice setting
- Participants will be able to communicate with Aboriginal patients and their carers in a culturally appropriate manner
- Participants will be able to develop management plans aimed at improving the quality of care for Aboriginal people

Facilitators:

- Clair Andersen, Aboriginal Higher Education Advisor based in the Tasmanian Institute of Learning & Teaching at UTAS (Bachelor of Education, Masters of Teaching, Graduate Certificate in Indigenous Research)
