

Invitation

Allied Health Network – professional development events 2019

Working with clients with mental health problems

Primary Health Tasmania invites allied health professionals to the second round of regional events for 2019.

The learning outcome(s) for this event are - I will now be able to
1.	Initiate a conversation with, and support, a client in psychological distress
2.	Suggest to the client where they can access further help and support
3.	Refer a client with mental health problems to appropriate services

A case study, written from the consumer perspective, will be a focus.

Come along to an evening of learning, discussion and information sharing.

How to RSVP

Visit: www.primaryhealthtas.com.au/events and select the nominated event to complete your registration.

Online registration is confirmed immediately in our booking system and is our preferred method of RSVP.

Once registered, if you cannot attend please call to cancel.
