

NURSING IN GENERAL PRACTICE ORIENTATION COURSE

Target Audience

Novice nurses working in General Practice or those nurses wishing to refresh their knowledge and skills

Prerequisites

Essential

- Nurses working in General Practice

Recommended

- Located in Southern Tasmania

Description

Aim

The role, responsibilities, common clinical demands and expectations of working as a nurse in General Practice.

Core Modules

1. Infection control
2. Wound care
3. Cold chain management
4. Immunisation
5. Scope of practice
6. Clinical skills
7. Chronic disease
8. Triage

Course Design

The 3 main components of the course are:

1. Pre-workshop study
2. 2-day workshop
3. Workplace support

Training Methods

- On-line learning
- Group activities
- Group discussions
- Pause & discuss scenarios
- Problem based learning case simulations
- Skill stations

Maximum Participants

Maximum of 16 participants

CPD Hours

Completion of the course will attract 21 CPD hours

Location for the workshop

Rydges Hobart 393 Argyle St, North Hobart TAS

Course Dates & Duration

26th February to 11th April 2021

- 26th February, Start pre-workshop study
- 20th & 21st March, 2-day workshop
- 22nd March – 11th April, Workplace support

Cost

FREE, sponsored by Primary Health Tasmania

Provider

Primary Health Network, Education and Training (P-NET)

Sponsor

Primary Health Tasmania

To Apply

On the Primary Health Tasmania Events web site:

<https://www.primaryhealthtas.com.au/for-health-professionals/events/>