

Invitation

Community consultation series: Mental health continuum of care

About the events

Primary Health Tasmania's Mental Health Continuum of Care Project aims to improve Tasmanians' experience of and outcomes from the mental health services we commission.

The project will seek to enhance service integration and coordination, so people experience a more connected journey across mental health services and receive the right care at the right time.

The community consultation sessions will be focused on designing elements of the new service model. Specifically, the sessions will explore:

- what we've heard so far about what can be improved in mental health services in Tasmania
- collaboratively designing elements of a new service model, as well as testing and refining other aspects
- identifying risks and issues with delivering a new service model.
